CUCUMBER SALAD
Pare and slice cucumbers. Cut small the hearts of two heads of lettuce, after washing and drying them carefully. Add two fresh Bermuda onions very thinly sliced. For the dressing take 1/4 cup of sweet cream, add two tablespoons sugar, saltspoon salt, tablespoon of Worcestershire sauce, two tablespoons of tarragon vinegar, dash of red pepper, and the juice of half a lemon. Mix well and turn over the salad. Serve in bowl lined with green lettuce and beet leaves and garnish with ripe olives.

CHOCOLATE JUNKET
One junket tablet
One quart milk
One-half cup sugar
Two squares chocolate
Three-fourths cup of double cream
Vanilla
Candied cherries
One-fourth cup walnuts
One egg white
Dissolve the junket tablet in one tablespoon of cold water. Warm milk until lukewarm, then add sugar and stir until well dissolved. Melt the chocolate and add slowly one-half cup of the warm milk, allowing it to boil one minute. Remove from fire and add remainder of milk, one teaspoonful vanilla, and the dissolved junket tablet. If the mixture is not lukewarm, warm it until it is. Pour in molds and place on ice, being careful not to jar them.
Add three tablespoons of milk to the double cream, flavor with vanilla and beat until stiff. Beat the egg white until dry, adding one tablespoon of powdered sugar. Fold this in the beaten cream. Chill on ice, or freeze, but not hard. Garnish the junket with this, also adding the candied cherries and nuts.

PINEAPPLE SURPRISE SALAD
Dissolve a package of lemon jello in a pint of boiling water; when cold and beginning to thicken, add a can of pineapple cut in small pieces. Fill individual molds half full of the mixture. Put a cream cheese ball filled with chopped pecans and dusted with paprika in the center of each mold, then finish filling the molds with the pineapple jelly. Place in ice-box and when it has become firm arrange on lettuce leaves and serve with mayonnaise.

GOOD RIDDANCE OF BAD RUBBISH

BY FLOYD MACGRIFF
NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, the unrecognized Russian soviet ambassador, was cheerful though disappointed today over the decision of the U. S. department of labor to deport him.

tion order is based on the fact that I am the representative of the Russian soviet government, and not on the charge of spreading Bolshevik propaganda here," he said.
"I don't know I have admitted all along that I was the Russian soviet representative," he said.
Asked what he would do about the deportation order he answered:
"My first move will be to wire Moscow for orders. It will be for Moscow to decide whether I shall resist further the deportation proceedings by an appeal to the courts, or whether I shall comply with the American government's request."

GERMAN KILLS BRITISH OFFICER

LONDON, Dec. 17.—A British officer has been killed by a former German army officer at Kattowitz, in Prussian Silesia, said a News Agency dispatch from Berlin today.

Kattowitz lies in that section of Prussia where a plebiscite is shortly to be held to determine whether the territory is to remain under the German flag or be transferred to Poland. Bitter hostility has arisen between the Poles and German and allied troops are on the scene to preserve order. An allied mission also is on the scene.

LEGION PREVENTS A LYNCHING

INDEPENDENCE, Kans., Dec. 17.—One hundred and fifty American Legion members today patrolled the streets of Independence and guarded the county jail to prevent lynching of Noble Greb, murder suspect, and a second outbreak of a race riot which took a toll of two dead and four wounded.

NEW SUPERVISOR FOR STREET RY. COMPANY

Effective today another traffic supervisor has been added by the H. W. & E. C. street railways in order to help conditions in the south part of Hammond which have been the subject of much complaint recently.

Len H. Whitmer, who has had years of experience in the street railway service, has been assigned the territory from State and Hohman streets south. It will be his task to try and keep a steady flow of cars over that part of the system and straighten out the numerous tangles, which are caused by the cars being frequently held up long periods and bunched at railroad crossings.

It is expected that his efforts will silence some of the complaints which have been received from the Landora district.
